BIG PARADE — BAR-BE-CUE — FOOTBALL GAME
SCHEDULE OF EVENTS ON BACK COVER

The President's Message

Dear Alumni:

Enthusiasm is at a high level as the sixty-seventh session of Lenoir Rhyne College opens. I list several of the reasons I see for this:

(1) Another capacity enrollment of students with higher entrance qualifications.

(2) A capable and devoted faculty—only two resignations for this session and five replacements and additions.

(3) The wonderful new facilities provided in Shuford Gymnasium and Monroe Auditorium.

(4) Anticipation of construction beginning this fall on men's dormitory with 176 capacity.

(5) Announcement of the $400,000 gift of Dr. and Mrs. Luther L. Minges and family for a Science Building and the expectation of starting this building in 1958.

(6) High expectations of LR's public for a good year in athletics and other extra-curricular activities.

Such facts are ample cause for enthusiasm running high, yet the enthusiasm itself poses a real challenge. It can quickly evaporate and vanish unless we, whatever our place in the college constituency, rise to our responsibilities and opportunities in the forward march of Lenoir Rhyne. Certainly we, the sons and daughters of Lenoir Rhyne, shall be the first to acclaim our alma mater's progress and the first in providing support for her further advance.

Yours truly,
VOIGT R. CROMER.

P. S. The Loyalty Fund and the Development Fund are two specially designed channels for providing our support.

A Greeting From Our New Alumni President

Dear Fellow-Alumni,

Greetings and best wishes as we begin a new year! It is with true humility that I express my sincere appreciation for the honor of serving as your president through this year. I shall need your help and cooperation, but I feel that we have a wonderful year before us and I'm looking forward to working with you.

It will soon be time again for our annual celebration of "Homecoming." May I urge each of you to take advantage of this occasion? Here is an opportunity to renew acquaintances, to see the growth and changes made on the campus, and, more important, to attend the football game and to support the squad and the coaches.

All of us should feel a debt to this wonderful school, our Alma Mater. Let's watch for opportunities to serve her during the coming year.

Best regards,
LLOYD LITTLE, '33, President
General Alumni Association.

Minges Family Assures College Of New Science Building

The gift of a Science Building to Lenoir Rhyne college by Mr. Luther L. Minges, LL.D., of Rocky Mount, and his children was announced recently by Dr. Voigt R. Cromer, President of Lenoir Rhyne. This ranks among the largest gifts to be received by Lenoir Rhyne since the founding of the college in 1891.

This outstanding benefaction had its origin in 1944 with an initial contribution of $20,000 in U. S. Treasury Bonds by Mr. Minges, establishing the Minges Building Fund. Periodic additions to the fund by Mr. Minges since that year have increased its assets to a substantial total. Because of the advance in building costs and the importance of erecting a science building of adequate size and facilities for Lenoir Rhyne in her program of expansion, Dr. Minges has recently made an additional large gift and has been joined by his children, who are supplementing the fund with their individual gifts.

The Board of Trustees has authorized the college officials and architect to proceed with the preparation of plans and specifications for the science building with the expectation of beginning construction in 1958. The cost of the proposed building is estimated at $400,00 not including the equipment which is to be financed from other sources.

In announcing the Minges contribution Dr. Cromer declared: "The gift of a new science building is a tremendous boost to our development program and will make possible the further growth and strengthening of the science department which is overcrowded in existing facilities. This is a magnificent project on the part of Dr. Minges and members of his family who are generous supporters of Christian Higher Education. For years to come their investment will produce high dividends in priceless human values. The Minges children share the vision of a Christian father and join him in translating his cherished dream into glorious reality."

Dr. Minges served as a member of the Lenoir Rhyne Board of Trustees from 1943 until 1955. A son, L. Dean Minges, is now a member of the Board. Dr. and Mrs.

Boys Dorm Plans Call For Expenditure Of Over Half Million

Lenoir Rhyne college will finance a three-story dormitory to house approximately two hundred men students with a federal loan of $510,000 approved this summer by the community facilities administration of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The new building will be located on the wooded hillside on Eighth Avenue, N. E., between the Hickory Junior High school and College Field. It was originally planned to have the dormitory ready for occupancy in September, 1958, Dr. Cromer said, and although there has been lengthy delays in the processing of the application and receipt of approval, it is still hoped that the building can be completed by that date.

The new facility will be contemporary in design, and will house two students to a room.

Dr. Cromer also pointed out that during the fund raising campaign for college development, conducted two years ago, the sum of $250,000 was earmarked for a women's dormitory. In following out the master plan, it was decided to renovate the newest dormitory on the campus, Fritz Hall, for the use of women students, and to move the men's dormitory off the main campus to its proposed location.

This decision eliminated the urgency of erecting an additional women's dormitory, he said, and left funds available for the renovation of Fritz Hall, for increased building costs caused by the refinement of plans for the new auditorium and gymnasium, and for the purchase of equipment for these new buildings.

It is expected that the amortization of the Federal loan for the new men's dormitory will largely be financed through dormitory income, Dr. Cromer concluded.

Minges and their children are active leaders in the work of the Lutheran Church through personal service and generous giving.

Dr. Minges and his sons have been successfully engaged in the bottling industry for a number of years and operate Pepsi-Cola plants in Rocky Mount, Fayetteville, Lumberton, Rockingham and Salisbury, N. C., and in Tuscaloosa, Alabama and Newport News, Virginia.

The following are the children of Dr. and Mrs. Minges: L. Dean and Richard B. Minges of Fayetteville; Charles R. and Herman S. Minges of Lumberton; Mrs. Mary Minges Covington, Harold D. and John T. Minges of Rocky Mount; Edwin L. Minges of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Mrs. Emily Minges Mitchell of Warwick, Virginia; and Mrs. Helen Minges Field of Macon, Georgia.

Dr. Luther L. Minges is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin Minges of Catawba County, N. C.

Alumni Day Elections

Lloyd Little of Shelby was elected president of the Lenoir Rhyne college Alumni Association during its annual business session which followed the banquet in the college dining hall on June 1.

Other officers elected were: Thomas E. Rhodes of Asheville, first vice-president; the Rev. Bernard Trexler of Asheville, second vice-president; Mrs. Ed Schenck of Greensboro, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Kenneth B. Lee of Hickory, necrologist.

Prior to the business session, Dr. William H. Moretz, professor and chairman of the Department of Surgery at the Medical College of Georgia, Augusta, and member of the graduating class of 1935, outlined for the returning alumni the tremendous advances surgery and medicine have made in the past decade.

Class Reunions and the annual alumni tea followed during the afternoon and evening.

GALA DAY PLANNED FOR '57 HOMECOMING

OCTOBER 19TH

Hundreds of Grads Expected Back for Homecoming Events

A full day has been planned for the alumni at homecoming on Saturday, October 19. The Alumni Association, the College Student Body, fraternities, sororities and many other organizations are going "all out" to make this the most successful occasions ever at Lenoir Rhyne college.

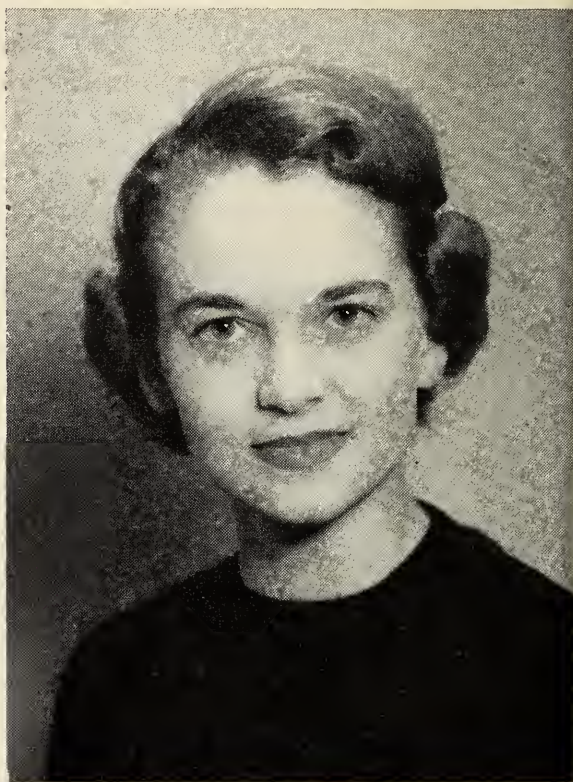

The parade will begin at 2:30 p.m., and will run the route this year that it has in the past. It will start at St. Andrew's Lutheran church and will proceed into downtown Hickory, turning left at Hotel Hickory; a right will be taken at Hickory Drug Company, and another right will be taken at Lutz Drug Company. The procession will then make its way back to the college.

Prizes will be awarded by the judges to the organizations having the best floats. Each of the dormitories also are competing for prizes for the best decorations.

An old-fashioned barbecue for the alumni has been arranged, and will be set up in the refectory on the West campus. Serving will begin at 4:30 and end at 6:30 p.m.

The pinnacle of the day will be the game between the Lenoir Rhyne Bears and the Guilford Quakers. Pre-game ceremonies are scheduled for 7:15 p.m., featuring a parade of bands and the crowning of the Homecoming Queen.

The concluding element of the affair will come at 10:30 p.m. with an open house for students with visitors in Cline gymnasium.

JUDY FORD

High Honors Accorded To L. R. Student

Miss Judy Ford of Cherryville, immediate past president of the Luther League of North Carolina, became the first girl president of the Luther League of America in its sixty-second year history when she was elected to the high office during its convention in Lawrence, Kansas, on August 14.

A senior at Lenoir Rhyne college, Judy becomes the second North Carolinian and the third Southerner to hold the position.

Miss Ford has served as president and vice-president of the state Luther League, as a member-at-large and recreation chairman for the national organization.

She has been selected as one of twenty-one primary delegates—she is the only student from the United Lutheran Church to the general assembly of the National Council of Churches which meets in St. Louis, December 1-6.

Although she considers her church work one of the "primary factors" in her life she has found time to serve this year as editor of the Lenoir Rhyne college annual and for the last three years has been a member of the college's prize-winning debate team, among a dozen other activities.

57-58 LOYALTY FUND CHAIRMAN

The 1957-58 Loyalty Fund Campaign will be headed by the Honorable James C. Farthing, class of 1936, of Lenoir, North Carolina, who has just recently been appointed Superior Court Judge of the twenty-fifth Judicial District.

At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee of the Lenoir Rhyne Alumni Association, a goal of $12,000 was set as this year's Loyalty Fund objective.

Judge Farthing expressed his belief that Lenoir Rhyne Alumni would meet this challenge. He added that he believed that this amount was a minimum objective and that he hoped the goal would be exceeded. The 1957-58 Chairman reminded Alumni that over 1,000 Lenoir Rhyne graduates have contributed to the Development Fund and if this same number contributes to the Loyalty Fund during the current campaign the job of raising the $12,000 goal will be an easy one.

Dr. William Moretz, Class of '35 was speaker for Alumni Day during Commencement weekend.

Spring Grads Hear Wentz, Scherer & Moretz

Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, professor of Church History, Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, Columbia, S. C., Challenged the 1957 graduating class of Lenoir Rhyne college to "Pause for Perspective." Dr. Wentz was the commencement speaker for the sixty-sixth commencement exercises held at Lenoir Rhyne college on June 3.

A total of 154 students received degrees or certificates during the ceremonies. Two North Carolinians received honorary degrees: Dr. Luther Lester Minges, industrialist of Rocky Mount—Doctor of Laws; The Rev. Frank K. Efird, pastor of St. John's Salisbury—Doctor of Divinity.

Those receiving degrees or certificates were: Bruce Rhyne Abernethy, Doris Virginia Abernethy, Chloe Anne Allen, Barbara Anne Barger, Dorothy Lee Bolick, Carolyn Janette Bowman, Richard Crowell Boyd, Jerry Odell Buff, Jean Alice Coffey, Ambrose Bunyon Collins, Jerry R. Copas, Hugh Conrad Flowers, Margaret Louise

RECEIPTS CONTINUE IN LENOIR RHYNE DEVELOPMENT FUND

Report as of September 12, 1957

Amount subscribed	$1,507,685.15
Amount paid	1,036,974.13
Balance outstanding	470,711.02

With 68.78% of the amount subscribed now paid, the Lenoir Rhyne Development Fund is now in the completion drive to achieve 100% paid.

In recent weeks payments have been flowing into the office and hundreds of pledges are entering the "paid-in-full" classification. This is to be expected with the expiration of the thirty-month payment period.

It is hoped that all subscribers who are in arrears will hasten to join the "paid-in-full" company. The total paid should reach 90% by the end of 1957. This allows 10% to cover balances not due until after 1957 because of a few subscriptions which were made on an extended payment period. In order to reach the 90% by December 31, the flow of payments-in-full must continue through the next three months.

President Voigt R. Cromer made the following statement in releasing the above report: "We are grateful for the thousands of subscribers who have fulfilled their pledges but there is a wide gap of 31.22% to be filled in reaching the total pledged in the 1955 campaign. This is the crucial period. Only a concentrated response on the part of those with unpaid balances can bring complete success. No alumnus will want to subtract from 100% subscription receipts by an unpaid pledge."

SCENES FROM LUTHER LEAGUE CONVENTION ON LENOIR RHYNE CAMPUS

Luther Leaguers Hold Conclave—Elect Ricks

"One World, One Mission." This was the theme of the thirty-sixth annual Luther League of the North Carolina Synod Convention held on the campus of Lenoir Rhyne college July 25-27.

It was a gala affair for the some 270 delegates and visitors from all over the state. Everything was included in the convention calendar from strictly business to top-notch amateur entertainment.

Eddie Ricks, a Lenoir Rhyne college junior of Rocky Mount, was elected president for 1957-58. He succeeded Judy Ford, a Lenoir Rhyne college senior of Cherryville.

Tom Ridenhour, a sophomore at Davidson college, of Concord, will serve as the veep for the '57-58 convention. Other officers included Marjorie Kluttz, recording sec.; Ruth Whittaker, statistical sec.; Elsie Hamilton, treasurer; David Keck, Archivist; and Charles Murph, Jr., member-at-large.

The Rev. Warren C. Johnson, secretary of the United Lutheran Church of America Board of Foreign Missions, was the guest speaker at the convention banquet. "I have been associated with a number of outstanding Luther League Conventions yet this one is better organized and has manifested more enthusiasm," Rev. Johnson said.

The initial day of the convention was primarily concerned with registration and getting acquainted. Then a talent show was held for the delegates and visitors in the P. E. Monroe Auditorium.

The second day a number of discussion groups, business sessions, election of officers and the convention banquet, which was held on the college green, were the highlights.

The final day saw the installation of new officers and the final business sessions.

Last year the state convention was held in Arden, N. C. at the Lutheran Assembly Grounds of the Southeast.

Lutheran Women Meet In Monroe Auditorium

The seventy-second convention of the United Lutheran Church Women of the United Evangelical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina held its annual three-day session at the P. E. Monroe Auditorium on the Lenoir Rhyne college campus August 24, 25 and 26.

All reports indicated this was one of the most successful conventions held by that organization and that the purpose, to "Recruit, Educate, Serve and Give" was carried out in every session.

Representing a membership of 10,238 women distributed among 171 societies, approximately 270 delegates and scores of visitors enjoyed sessions of inspiration, information, and fellowship. Those responsible for arranging the program on the theme, "Consecrated, Lord to Thee," were Mrs. H. B. Wolf, Charlotte; Mrs. L. C. Powles, Rockwell; Mrs. M. C. Yoder, Hickory; and Mrs. J. L. Norris, Burlington.

Mrs. Clayton Davis of Salisbury, president of the Northern Conference, served as convention chairman. All business sessions were presided over by Mrs. Paul B. Beatty of Charlotte, president of the Synodical Society. Mrs. Aubrey Mauney of Kings Mountain served as organist, and Mrs. Craig Yoder of Hickory as parliamentarian.

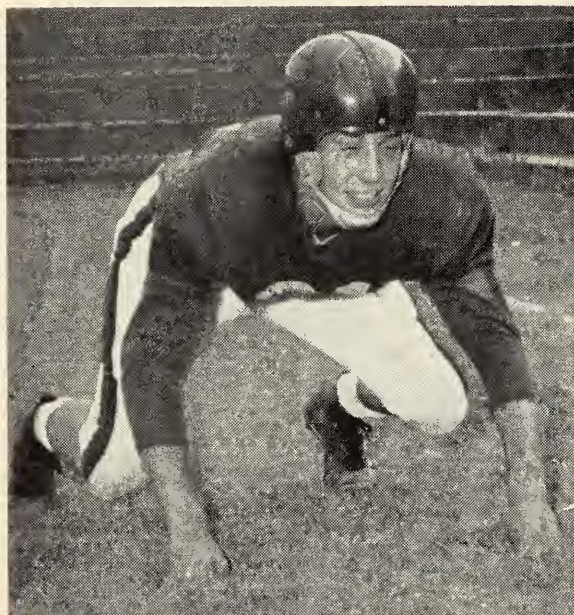

During the business meeting, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Paul B. Beatty of Charlotte; vice president, Mrs. G. R. Patterson, Hickory; recording secretary, Miss Doris Young, Salisbury; statistical secretary, Mrs. Glenn Miller, Vale; treasurer, Mrs. R. W. Barringer, Hamlett; membership, Mrs. Ernest Misenheimer, Salisbury; education, Mrs. B. D. Castor, Albemarle; Christian Service, Mrs. James Sullivan, Burlington; offerings, Mrs. B. S. Brown, Jr., Kannapolis; publicity, Mrs. Curtis Morehead, Hudson; and N. C. Missions, J. Frank Davis of Wilmington.

Bears Face Eleven Opponents During Season

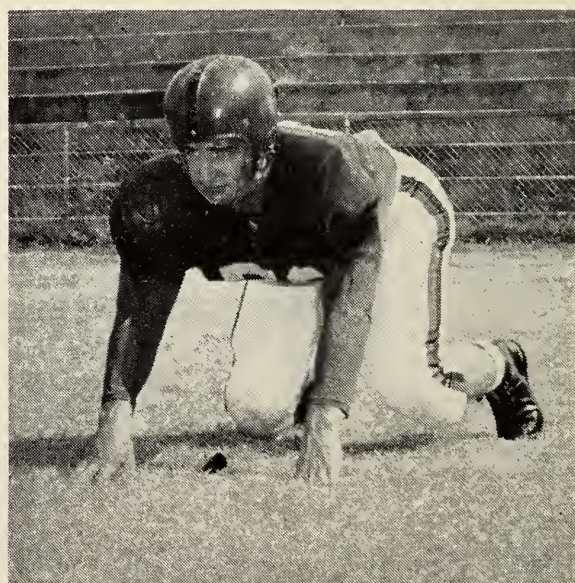

Lenoir Rhyne opened its 1957 grid campaign with a smashing 68-13 victory over the Newport News Apprentice School and from there, entered into what Coach Clarence Stasavich calls "the toughest schedule in Lenoir Rhyne history."

The Bears face four more strong non-conference foes in Wofford, Newberry, Presbyterian, and Emory & Henry—all of them considered by Stas as strong enough to beat the Bruins.

In addition, LR will meet the six North State Loop opponents, all gunning for revenge after licking their wounds from 1956, when the Bears rolled to six straight loop wins and 10 straight overall.

Coach Stas isn't predicting another undefeated season and believes there are several teams on the schedule capable of snapping their 21-game undefeated skein.

But the favored Bruins have the material to rank atop the conference in pre-season ratings.

LEVEO SPEROTTO—Tackle

They have All-American fullback Harold Bullard back plus four other all-conference boys—center Allan LaTorre, end Hume Collins, tackle Leveo Sperotto, and Captain and quarterback Dean Cline.

COACHES—Stasavich, Painter, and Wilson pose for the camera just before kicking off their 1957 football season with Newport News Apprentice School. P. S. The Bears won 68-13.

Twenty lettermen and 10 holdovers give Stas a good nucleus to work with.

In addition, he has 12 freshmen candidates, several of them battling for second team honors.

Running down the team, position by position:

The ends will be one of the strongest berths on the entire squad with four lettermen returning.

Collins and Guy Fisher will man the number-one posts with Frank Weber and John David Moose supplying topnotch reserve strength.

Sperotto and sophomore Hankie McCrorie are currently the top tackles but Charles Sanders, Roy Burris, and Charles Lucas are making bids to see top action. Freshman Wade Teague is considered a real comer by line coach Hanley Painter.

The guards will be spearheaded by three veterans—Norman Punch, Billy Johnson, and Maurice Sives.

Punch is a definite starter at one guard post while Johnson was counted on as the other starter. However, an injury put Johnson on the sidelines several games and Sives moved in capably.

Glenn Link, George Reynolds, and Nevio Renzullo are the top reserves.

The center slot is another strong point on the LR squad. Stas has two of the best in LaTorre and Joe Murphy.

The offense will be built around Bullard, of course. The big fullback gained 1,075 yards last season and scored 16 touchdowns. He is backed by Lee Farmer, a frosh who gained 56 yards in the opener, Tommy Simmons, and Johnny Fisher.

Junior Bill Ackard and senior Bob Miller return to take over Walt Cornwall's vacated tailback berth. Ackard ran and passed for 750 yards in 1955 and will be a strong all-conference contender this year.

Letterman Billy Page and Tommy McCormick are the other top tailback hopefuls.

Cline, of course, will be the number-one quarterback. The brilliant senior is considered one of the best in the business. Danny Williams, also a senior, is top sub and he is probably the best passer on the team.

Adam Maples is a bright freshman prospect at quarterback.

The wingback job will be taken care of by two speedsters, Ronnie Hoffman and Dickie Foster. Both boys are capable of going all the way and both did just that in the opener—Hoffman scoring on a 55-yard punt return and Foster dashing 49 yards to paydirt.

Thad Lineberger, Wilson Martin, and Robert Johnson are the other wingback contenders.

Sector School One Of Summer Highlights

Over one hundred pastors and laymen attended a Sector School on the Lenoir Rhyne college campus, August 9 and 10. This Sector Project is a study of the Stewardship Program of the United Lutheran Church of America, in North Carolina.

The school was under the direction of Ira Angstadt and John Berger, both of New York City, of the Lutheran Layman's Movement staff. Pastors and laymen from several N. C. Synod congregations participating in Sector last year appeared on the program and gave their experiences with the various steps in Sector.

L. R. Grad Elected

Gordon W. Ward, Jr., 21, a student at Philadelphia Seminary, was unanimously elected president of the Lutheran Student Association of America at its council meeting held on the St. Paul campus of Luther Theological Seminary, August 21-25. The meeting preceded the LSA Ashram at St. Olaf college, Northfield, Minn.

Ward, a native of Durham, N. C., succeeds Arthur J. Diers, 22, who took special courses at Philadelphia Seminary last year and will serve as intern at Grace church (ALC), Green Bay, Wis., this year.

The new president is a 1957 graduate of Lenoir Rhyne college, Hickory, N. C. He just completed a term as stewardship secretary for the LSAA, and has had several offices on the local and regional levels. As president he will head a movement containing 400 local groups in the United States and Canada.

Everette Propst, '40, of Hickory, has been elected principal of Claremont Elementary school.

Vernon Hedrick, '56, of Statesville, has accepted a position teaching physical education and social studies at the Maiden High school.

Mrs. L. Clement Hahn of Hildebran, received her Master of Arts degree in Education from Appalachian State Teachers college during the summer session. During the summer she was a graduate assistant in the supervision of college student teachers in the Appalachian High School Camp on the campus of Lees-McRae college at Banner Elk. This year she will teach English and World History in the Hildebran High school where she has taught for the past three years. Mrs. Hahn, '37, is the former Miss Helen Yoder.

The Rev. Fred M. Ramseur, '54, became pastor of St. Stephen's Lutheran church, Hickory, on June 1, following his graduation from the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbia, S. C.

Attends Seminar

Miss Minnie Lee Peedin, of the staff of Lenoir Rhyne college, attended a three-day seminar on traffic safety, at Knoxville, Tenn. This was held August 19-21 at the University of Tennessee.

The seminar, conducted for women's and parents organizations, was sponsored by the Women's Advisory Group of President Eisenhower's committee for Traffic Safety. This was one of a series of six meetings scheduled throughout the country during 1957.

Miss Peedin stated, that the meeting was interesting as well as instructive. The two-fold purpose of the meeting was to give the participants a clear picture of the traffic accident and congestion problems confronting American communities and States; and to offer action plans by which women's and parents' groups can support official agencies in reducing accidents and congestion and improving the highway transportation system.

She was one of three attending the seminar from North Carolina.
